Financial Information

Award Amount

The America 250 Oregon Commission has allocated $100,000 of the funding provided by the Oregon State Legislature toward this grant program.

- Awards will be up to $5000 each.
- 50% of the funds are slated to be awarded to organizations in rural communities. For the purposes of this grant a rural community is under 30,000 in population and outside the Portland Metro urban growth boundary.

Match

No match is required.

Use of Funds

Funds can be used for equipment purchase, staffing, materials, supplies, volunteer support, promotion and marketing, and other costs directly associated with the funded project.

Grant Coordination

Oregon Heritage and Oregon Historical Society have teamed to coordinate the grant for the America 250 Oregon Commission. Oregon Heritage is coordinating the application, selection, and reporting processes. Oregon Historical Society (OHS) will disburse the funds to Grantees.

Grant Process

The America 250 Oregon Grant is a noncompetitive grant. Organizations apply using an online form [insert link] that requires basic organizational, budget, and project information. A project and organization that meets the grant eligibility and requirements will be awarded funds based on the order of submission until funds are fully allocated for each category (urban and rural) and for each cycle. $50,000 is available in cycle one, $25,000 each for rural and urban communities. At the end of the cycle one application period, remaining funds from the first cycle will be allocated to the second cycle. At least $50,000 is available in cycle two, $25,000 each for rural and urban communities. At the end of the cycle 2 application period, remaining funds in the rural or urban categories may be award in the other category.
